WATER CONSERVATION SURVEY RESULTS

Interesting information from the Village water conservation survey taken earlier this year.

- 58% of respondents have lived in the Village one to ten years; 21% 10 to 20 years; 12% all their lives; and 9% less than a year.
- 60% live on the west side of I-25 south of Main Street; the rest in a variety of areas.
- 73% are over 50; 18% 36-50; 7% 26-35; and 2%, 18-25.
- 49% believe the most important reason to conserve water is because there is a limited water supply; 31% to ensure successive generations have water; 15% to help keep water bills low; and 5% because we are in a drought.
- 27% said a clothes washer was purchased as a new water-related purchase when buying or remodeling a home; 23% dishwasher; 22% cooling system; 19% hot water heating system; and 9% had no water-related purchase.
- 40% said they had a low flow toilet in the home; 32% a low flow shower; 17% a low flow faucet; and 11% had no low flow fixtures.

- 30% want more information about water supply and demand in the Village; 25% want to know more about Village water restrictions and prohibitions; 18% water conservation tips; 11% xeriscaping; 10% how to select water-saving appliances and fixtures; and 6% irrigation systems.

STORYHOUR GRADUATION

Jericho Aragon claps enthusiastically at the graduation ceremony for Storyhour at the Village Public Library. Anyone wanting to enroll their pre-school aged child can come by the library in August. Space is limited. Classes start in September.

VILLAGE RECYCLES

Recyclers participated in the April Village Great American Recycling Event by turning in:

- 5 gallons used oil
- 8 gallons assorted paints
- 10 four-yard bins cardboard estimated 2,500 pounds
- 5 four-yard bins plastic estimated 700 pounds
- 4 cubic yards metal
- 50 pounds aluminum
- 25 pounds tin
- 2 bins glass estimated 736 pounds
- 6 TVs
- 350 pounds electronics
- One-half pound batteries

Thanks to the Village employees who worked the event: Marcus Montoya, Jason Marquez, Joshua Chavez, Jesus Montoya, Tommy Gurule and David Foreman.

Sonia Walker of the Community Development Department provided gift bags for recyclers.
