VILLAGE OFFICIALS APPOINTED

The Los Lunas Village Council appointed the following at the March organizational meeting: Village Administrator Greg Martin; Police Chief Naithan Gurule; Fire Chief John Gabaldon; and Mayor Pro Tem Christopher Ortiz.

Martin has been Village Administrator since 2012 after serving as city manager in St. Johns, Arizona, and assistant town manager in Strasburg, Virginia.

He earned a bachelor's degree in Spanish Translation and a master's degree in Public Administration from Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah.

Martin and his wife Chelsey have eight children.

Chief Gurule was a lieutenant, Division Commander of the LLPD Professional Standards Division, before being appointed chief in 2014.

He was also responsible for internal investigations, the traffic division, and served as a department public information officer. He was born in El Paso and raised in Los Lunas. He and his wife have six children. He has about fifteen years of law enforcement experience.

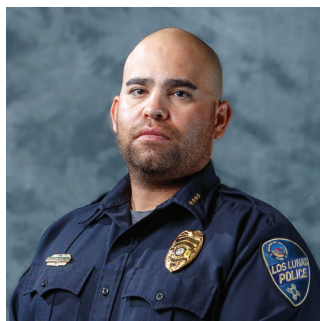

Chief Gabaldon began his firefighting career as a volunteer with the Belen department and then came to Los Lunas where he decided to become a career firefighter and Emergency Medical Technician.

A Los Lunas High School graduate, Gabaldon and his wife Jessica have two sons, Kayden and John III. He was appointed Los Lunas fire chief in 2016.

Christopher Ortiz was elected to represent District One on the Village Council in March 2016. As Mayor Pro Tem, he fills in for Mayor Charles Griego when necessary.

LUNA PAINTING IN MUSEUM

A painting of Maximiliano Luna, a Los Lunas native who served with the Rough Riders, now hangs in the Village Museum of Heritage and Arts thanks to the painting's artist and the Valencia County Historical Society.

Village resident Brent Thomas created the portrait in 2015 for the cover of a book about Luna written by University of New Mexico-Valencia professor Richard Melzer.

The March 2018 Village newsletter mistakenly attributed this painting to Brent Anderson. The artist is Brent Thomas.

Thomas's portrait shows Luna as a captain in Teddy Roosevelt's Rough Riders during the Spanish-American War.

Thomas has presented the painting to the Valencia County Historical Society which asked that the Los Lunas Museum display the painting. It now hangs in the museum.

SUMMER RECREATION PROGRAM

Registration is ongoing for the Village's summer recreation program at the Daniel Fernandez Recreation Center.

The program is conducted Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Buses provide transportation to and from field trips only. Drop off and pick up transportation is not provided.

The cost is $45 per child and the first 300 registrants are accepted.

A child must have completed at least kindergarten to be eligible for the program which takes children up to the age to 12.

All those registering must have proof of age in the form of a birth certificate or report card.

The summer recreation program is a service to children in the Los Lunas School District.

The Village and the School District are not responsible for insurance for any child in the program.

BATTLE OF THE BOOKS

Los Lunas hosts the New Mexico State Battle of the Books Saturday, April 28, at Los Lunas High School, 1776 Emilio Lopez Rd NW, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The Battle of the Books is a reading competition for students in grades four through eight.

Children read and meet with their peers throughout the year before entering a quiz-style battle.

Contact Karin Trujillo at ktrujillo@lilschools.net or 505 865-1750, ext. 6818, for more information.

BACA FAMILY PROJECT CONFERENCE

The Village Transportation Center will be the site for the May 19, 2018, Baca Family Historical Project conference.

In New Mexico alone, the Baca Family Historical Project estimates one in 50 native New Mexico Hispanics may be affected with the Common Hispanic Mutation, a rare genetic disorder causing weakened capillaries in the brain.

The genetic disorder is linked to New Mexico's founding family, Cristobal Baca and his wife, Ana Maria Lara, who settled New Mexico in the 1600s.

The May 19 conference is free. Free DNA testing is offered for individuals who meet the criteria.

The Village Museum of Heritage & Arts has been helping coordinate this event.

LOS LUNAS IN TOP 10

A new study from SmartAsset ranks the Village of Los Lunas one of the top 10 places to retire in New Mexico.

The study compares various factors for a successful retirement such as financial burdens, social life, and easily accessible medical care.

Considering both income and sales tax (state and federal), the Village's effective tax rate is 16.6% while the nationwide average is 17.2%.

This percentage is based on the average retiree earning $35,000 from retirement savings, Social Security, and/or part-time employment, and purchasing taxable goods with disposable income.

The Village has the second-best rate compared to the other nine places in New Mexico with the 16.6% tax rate.

Village Administration Office: 505 839-3840

Seniors comprise 14.4% of the Village's population.

There are .5 recreation centers for each thousand people.

The Village has a higher number of doctors' offices per thousand people in the Village with 1.5 doctors' offices per thousand.

This is above the national and New Mexico average of 0.8.
