- Right turn lane from Main Street / NM HWY 6 onto NM HWY 314. $353,750. Completed.
- Continued work on new I-25 interchange south of I-25 Exit 203/ East-West Corridor, different parts of this project are allocated specific funding.

A few projects in the design stage are –

- NM HWY 314 bike / pedestrian improvements from Main Street to James Street, $1.8 million.
- NM HWY 314 bike / pedestrian improvements from Ellen Drive to Griego Road, $200,000.
- NM HWY 6 trail from Sun Ranch Road to Jubilee Road, $220,000.
- Splash Pad at Daniel Fernandez Park, $600,000.
- The Village Council has approved $150,000 for landscaping improvements on Main Street / NM HWY 6 between Canal Boulevard and Los Cerritos Road in front of the New Mexico State Campus, which will include sidewalk replacement, irrigation, trees, plants, rock, and park benches.

Funding for projects comes from a variety of sources including legislative appropriations and the Village budget and some projects are funded through grants and state revenue.

VILLAGE BUDGET APPROVED

The Village Council adopted the 2019-2020 fiscal year revenue and expenditure budget at its July 25, 2019, meeting.

The budget is available on the Village website, loslunasnm.gov.

NOW IT'S PARKS AND RECREATION

The Village of Los Lunas Community Services Department has been renamed the Village of Los Lunas Parks and Recreation Department.

The divisions, organizational structure, authorized positions and associated programs will remain the same in the newly renamed Village Parks and Recreation Department.

PANCAKES FOR KIDS

The Los Lunas Rotary Club's second annual "Pancakes for a Cause" breakfast will be Saturday, Sept. 28, 2019, from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. at Ribs Restaurant, 120 Nelson Lane.

The food includes pancakes, bacon, eggs, juice and coffee with tickets $10 for adults and $5 for children.

The event raises funds for the Los Lunas club's long-time service project Clothes for Kids.

FIREFIGHTERS HAVE TRAINING TOWER

Village Fire station #2 is a year old and has a new training tower to help Los Lunas firefighters become better in their jobs of protecting and helping citizens.

The training tower is behind the station located on Sand Sage west of the Walmart.

The structure was purchased for $267,420, $100,000 was a Fire Protection Grant from the State Fire Marshal's office and the remainder approved by the Village Council from the Village budget.

The tower includes reconfigurable rooms, fog machines, rappelling equipment with a wall to rappel on, windows and doors, ladders with exterior and interior stairs, and various other training equipment.

Chief Gabaldon says the department will be working with other fire departments in the county as well as law enforcement agencies on training using the tower.

The Village now has 30 volunteer and career firefighters. Crews are stationed at the Sand Sage building and Fire Station #1 located at 465 Main St. SE. Additional fire equipment is kept at Fire Station #3 on the New Mexico State Campus, formerly known as the Hospital and Training School.

Fire station #2 and a new ladder truck are possible because Village voters approved a general obligation bond issue in March 2016.

Chief Gabaldon reminds people that the Los Lunas Fire Department does not do any soliciting. If someone calls or knocks on your door seeking funds for LLFD, tell them you need to call the department to verify. Then call the LLFD at 505 866-2116 and relate what happened.

Completed four-story training tower.

FLYING SAUCER HISTORY

The Friends of the Los Lunas Library and Museum of Heritage and Arts will present physicist and mathematician Dave Thomas talking about "The Flying Saucers of New Mexico: an Illustrated History" at 2 p.m. Saturday, August 17, 2019, at the Transportation Center next to the Rail Runner station, 101 Courthouse Road.

LLPD LIEUTENANT GRADUATES FROM FBI ACADEMY

Los Lunas Police Lt. Lisa Valenzuela-Medina is the first female officer from the Los Lunas Police Department to graduate from the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Police Academy.

Valenzuela-Medina successfully completed classes in leadership, labor law issues, communication, fitness and contemporary issues in law enforcement. She also completed several physical fitness challenges during her 10 weeks at the FBINA.

Valenzuela-Medina is currently the Los Lunas Police Department's professional standards lieutenant. She has been with the LLPD for eight years and is an instrumental member of the department's command staff.

In October 2018, Valenzuela-Medina received her Master of Science degree in leadership from Grand Canyon University.

The FBINA is a prestigious training academy offering classes to local and international law enforcement.

AFTER-SCHOOL PROGRAM OFFERED

The Village offers an After-School Program which includes transportation from Raymond Gabaldon Elementary, Los Lunas Elementary, and Katherine Gallegos Elementary every school day to Daniel Fernandez Recreation Center.

The program runs from after school until 6 p.m. The cost is $25 per child per week.

Kids receive a snack each day as well as recreational and educational activities including homework help. Space is extremely limited due to limited transportation capabilities.

Contact Marcos at 505 352-7662 or castillom@loslunasnm.gov or Brittany at 505 352-7719 or pereab@loslunasnm.gov.

JUBILEE RANKS IN TOP 50

Jubilee Los Lunas is the only master-planned community in New Mexico to be recognized by Where to Retire magazine's "The Short List: 50 Best Master-Planned Communities in the United States."

The July/August issue's list focuses on communities and features first-person testimonials by current residents.

Residents of Jubilee praise the quiet atmosphere and access to Albuquerque and its airport.

In the community's 11,000-square-foot clubhouse, they shoot billiards, play poker and enjoy happy hours, while the pool, archery range, pickleball courts and multipurpose trails offer outdoor recreation.

Where to Retire is published six times a year and has a national circulation of 200,000.

For more information contact Samantha Sais of Jubilee at: samantha@myjubileehome.com or 505 730-6134.

RANGE CAFÉ NOW OPEN

The newest restaurant in the Village of Los Lunas has a full bar, an extensive breakfast-to-dinner menu, will be supporting community activities, and accepts reservations.

The Range Café is now open at 740 Main St. NE, the space formerly occupied by Henrietta's Restaurant for many years.

Restaurant Manager Elias Montaño says the folks at the Range Café want to be part of the greater Los Lunas community.

As part of this effort, the Range Café has selected El Ranchito de los Ninos as its community partner. El Ranchito de los Ninos is a non-profit children's home located in Valencia County.

Montano points out The Range Café wants to work with people and organizations throughout the community.

The first Range Café was and is in Bernalillo. There are now four restaurants in Albuquerque and the Bernalillo one continues to thrive. The Range Café in Los Lunas will employ about 60 part and full time workers.

Breakfast is served all day but there is so much more to the menu. Offerings include salads, big plates of food that run the gamut of mac and cheese to blackened salmon, hamburgers and sandwiches, and North of the Border New Mexico specialties.

The dessert and bakery choices could be overwhelming with lots of pie flavors, different cakes, many homemade bakery items, plus an extensive dessert menu.

There's a Happy Hour with drink and food specials.

The Range Café in Los Lunas is open 7 a.m. to 9 p.m., 363 days a year, closed Thanksgiving and Christmas, phone 505 508-2144, website range咖啡.com.

Dancing cows welcome customers at The Range Café.
